My Dear Sir,

Mr Peter Masiza, the first Native priest in South Africa, a most untiring & enthusiastic Missionary, is very anxious to visit the Holy Land next year. He does not know much about travelling except on horseback, and is quite in the dark about the route. I think that his best plan will be to go to England, & there join some tourist party. Do you know if one of those ecclesiastical picnics is likely to be organized in 1895? From the account I read a short time ago of Mr Perowne's touring party, I think Mr Masiza wd.

I dread his being shocked by any irreligious

NOTES.

(MARCH 7TH, 1893.)

There are 4 clergy in the Diocese who have no parochial charge: Ven. Archdeacon Chamberlain, M.A., Kokstad; Rev. Canon Gibson, M.A., Umtata; Rev. S. A. Bangela, Tsolo; Rev. W. Gcwensa, Clydesdale. The two first-named assist the Revs. F. J. Adkin and G. Callaway, respectively.

On Feb. 18th, Rev. S. J. Wallis (S. Cuthberts) was ordained priest, and Mr. G. B. Whyatt (Idutywa) deacon, which makes the total number of clergy in the Diocese working under the Bishop, priests 21 (3 Natives), deacons 10 (8 Natives).

The work in the parishes of S. James' (Umtata), Butterworth, Idutywa, Cala, and Umzimkulu, is entirely among Europeans: that is S. Peter's is confined to Natives.

Ecclesiastically, the priests at Butterworth and Idutywa are curates-in-charge, under the Bishop.

† No returns having been sent in from S. Marks and Clydesdale, the figures given are those for 1892.

* Vide Cath. Register.
